

Zehrid Osmani

Head of Global Long-Term Unconstrained

Investment experience: 23 years

Zehrid is head of the Global Long-Term Unconstrained team and is manager of Martin Currie Global Portfolio Trust. As head of the team, Zehrid has responsibility for the overall Global Long-Term unconstrained strategies processes, and ultimate accountability for portfolio construction across all funds. He is the team's roving analyst but also has research focus on the financials and healthcare sectors. He joined Martin Currie in May 2018 from BlackRock, where he held a number of senior roles from January 2008. At BlackRock, he was a senior portfolio manager and had responsibility for managing several pan-European equity funds with a specific focus on unconstrained, high-conviction, long-term portfolios, as well as being Head of European Equities Research. Prior to this, Zehrid managed equity portfolios at Scottish Widows Investment Partnership (SWIP), and was a specialist sector analyst at Commerzbank Securities, UBS Warburg and Credit Lyonnais. Zehrid began his investment career as a trainee fund manager at Scottish Investment Trust. He has a BA in Economics and Finance from University of Paris-La Sorbonne and a Masters in International Finance from the University of Glasgow.
