Ratings without cash, Market Value or Notional Exposure: Ratings shown are assigned by one or more Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organizations ('NRSRO'), such as Standard & Poor's, Moody's and Fitch. The ratings are an indication of an issuer's creditworthiness and typically range from AAA or Aaa (highest) to D (lowest). When ratings from all three agencies are available, the middle rating is used; when two are available, the lowest rating is used; and when only one is available, that rating is used. Foreign government bonds without a specific rating are assigned the country rating provided by an NRSRO, if available. The NR category consists of ratable securities that have not been rated by an NRSRO. The N/A category consists of nonratable securities (e.g., equities). Cash and equivalents are excluded from this breakdown.

Glossary

Dividend Yield of a stock is the total amount of dividend per share paid over the previous 12 months, divided by its current price. The dividend yield of a mutual fund is the market-weighted average of the dividend yields of all the stocks in the portfolio. This measure is gross of fees.

Weighted Yield (Internal Yield) is a blended measure used for balanced funds, the internal yield is the market-weighted average of the Yield to Maturity of the fund's fixed income component and the Dividend Yield of the fund's equity component. This measure is gross of fees.

Yield to Maturity (YTM) is a long-term yield expressed as an annual rate. A bond's YTM is the rate of return anticipated if one assumes the bond is held until its maturity date and all the coupons paid by the bond are reinvested at the same rate of return as the coupons. The calculation takes into account the current market price, par value, coupon interest rate and time to maturity. The YTM of a bond fund is the market-weighted average of the YTM's of all the bonds in the portfolio.

Yield to Worst (YTW) of a bond is the yield to maturity if the worst possible bond repayment takes place. If market yields are higher than the coupon, the YTW would assume no prepayment. If market yields are below the coupon, the YTW would assume prepayment. The YTW of a fund is the market-weighted average of the YTW's of all the bonds in the portfolio. This measure is gross of fees and excludes yield on cash.
